9. VILLAGE MATTERS

- a) ACE Report - There had been no meetings due to Covid.
- b) Village Demarcation Signs – The positioning of the signs were discussed. It was suggested that the sign from Blackhall would be replaced as would the one coming off the A19 at the south of the village. The sign coming into the village from the A19 flyover would need to be placed near the turning circle. A draft drawing and dimensions would be obtained so DCC highways could be contacted for permission.

10. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

11. PARKING OUTSIDE GOLF CLUB

A resident had remarked that the parking outside the golf club was such that some days pedestrians had to go onto the road to pass. Councillor Carling commented that the golf club had signs advising not to park on the road, they also advised Members of this. He would raise this issue further with the club.

It was also thought that some of the cars could be from the offices in the old brewery. The Chair advised she would speak to the owner.
